"The RVWA Educational Symposium never disappoints! Each year I come away inspired by the conversations, connections, and passion within this group. From thought-provoking speakers to meaningful networking, it's always such a valuable experience. I am grateful to be part of an organization that continues to champion and empower women in the RV industry!"

"For my first time attending, I was absolutely blown away by the experience and all the ladies I met. I walked away inspired and want to get more involved and more of my team to join. Thank you for this amazing experience! I look forward to attending next year."

"It wasn't just the number of people - though the room was packed wall to wall! - it was the energy, the openness, and the commitment to helping each other rise in a male-dominated industry that's constantly moving and evolving."

Sarah Ohanesian | Kickoff Speaker

What is the Educational Symposium?

The past 4 years of this event have been incredible experiences for all of us at RVWA. They left an indelible mark on all those who have been fortunate enough to attend. The resounding success and positive feedback from attendees have set the bar high again for this year's event! We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to once again come together and immerse ourselves in two days of unforgettable networking, collaboration of like-minded individuals, skill advancement, and celebrating women.
