"I thought the education was great and it was cohesive. I loved seeing and meeting all the women. It was great to have the headshots: what a value add!"

"Attending the Symposium was truly enlightening and beneficial for my professional development. The speakers were not only knowledgeable but also engaging, providing valuable insights and practical tips on how to improve our communication skills in a professional setting. I especially appreciated the interactive sessions where we got to practice our presentation skills. Overall, this Symposium has equipped me with the tools and confidence needed to effectively deliver impactful presentations in the workplace. I am grateful for the opportunity to have been part of such an enriching experience!"

"Being in the industry for under 10 years allows me to connect with true Trailblazers, make new connections, and continue to build a stronger networking community. The RVWA gives support, energy, and leadership resources that are not always available through my current employer."
